MY WORK

SANDRA O'DONNELL

WRITING COACH, AGENT, AUTHOR

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I work with writers to craft compelling stories. I believe the best writing comes from collaboration rather than isolation. I've worked with writers from the inception of an idea, through the final draft and those who have polished manuscripts ready for market. My goal is to create a cohesive experience for everyone – the writer, the agent who represents them, and the editor who ultimately publishes their manuscript.
